

London & Colonial adds Brewin Dolphin to Existing Discretionary Fund Manager Panel.

London & Colonial have recently announced Brewin Dolphin as the latest addition to their Discretionary Fund Manager panel.

Adam Wrench, Head of Product & Business Development at London & Colonial, said:-

“As one of the UK’s largest independently-owned private client investment managers, Brewin Dolphin currently manages in excess of £28 billion for more than 130,000 clients, across a nationwide network of over 30 offices spread throughout the UK and Channel Islands.

As one of the original founding members of the London Stock Exchange, and with a rich heritage spanning some two and a half centuries, they have a long and distinguished track record of both creating and preserving client wealth.

We are therefore pleased to now be able to offer our clients their services, amongst the choice of Discretionary Fund Managers currently available through our constantly evolving panel.”

Robin Beer, National Intermediaries Manager, at Brewin Dolphin, said:

“We are delighted to be working with London & Colonial, as their reputation for producing innovative and creative retirement solutions has long been recognised within the industry and their recently launched Multi-Platform offerings and International Open Annuity (QROPS), which complement their award-winning SIPP and their New Open Annuity, have already proven to be a great success.

We look forward to being able to offer their clients the benefit of our specialist expertise, to further complement an already impressive range of investment propositions which continue to go from strength to strength.”

Brewin Dolphin’s services are currently available across the whole of the London & Colonial product range of QROPS, QNUPS, SIPPs, and SSASs in addition to the aforementioned Multi-Platform offerings.
